

Project Benefits

- Continue uninterrupted transportation service through an underground pipeline of petroleum products that are refined into gas, diesel, jet fuel, and other products such as propane, which is extracted and used to heat homes and businesses in the Great Lakes region.
- Estimated 700 construction workers in northern Wisconsin with local hire opportunities.
- Millions of dollars in economic activity and benefits to northern Wisconsin.

