

Delivering the energy people need and want

Enbridge is uniquely positioned to meet North America's energy demands and leads in the safe, reliable and responsible delivery of the energy people need and want.

Our assets are diversified and balanced between natural gas and crude oil, complemented by our renewable power generation business.

Our core values and our commitment to stewardship of the environment and community engagement, have not changed – and will not change.

Key U.S. asset information:

Natural gas midstream and transmission pipelines.....	70,466* miles
Natural gas storage.....	162 Bcf
Crude oil and liquids pipelines.....	9,299 miles
Renewable energy generation.....	947 MW (net)

Key Enbridge delivery information:

Percentage of U.S. natural gas consumed.....	20%
Percentage of U.S. crude oil imports.....	40%
Percentage of crude produced in North America...	30%

*Includes about 48,500 miles of gathering pipe and 5,650 miles of gas and NGL transmission pipe owned and operated by DCP Midstream, a joint venture between Phillips 66 and Enbridge.