

Enbridge's economic impact on Florida

At Enbridge, our goal is to be the first-choice energy delivery company in North America and beyond – and for more than 75 years, we've delivered the energy that fuels quality of life.

We move about 30% of the crude oil produced in North America, we transport nearly 20% of the natural gas consumed in the U.S., and we operate North America's largest natural gas utility by consumer count. We were an early investor in renewable energy, and we have a growing offshore wind portfolio.

These activities deliver a variety of economic benefits to multiple states—and these aspects of our operations also fuel people's quality of life, whether they're:

- well-paying jobs in towns and cities;
- tax revenue that can help build schools, hospitals and roads;
- procurement spending that stimulates local economies; or
- grants and volunteer labor for community-strengthening projects.

As the world's population grows, we'll need all forms of energy to meet rising global demand. As a diversified energy company, we are uniquely positioned to help accelerate the global energy evolution, and we're doing it in ways that are ethical, sustainable and socially responsible.

We also recognize the importance of a secure, reliable and affordable supply of energy, which we deliver every day through our core businesses.

The energy evolution requires a practical approach. That's why we're committed to lowering emissions while meeting growing energy demand; supporting our customers today while anticipating their needs tomorrow; and developing new energy sources while keeping energy costs in check.

We're proud to deliver economic benefits in the states where we do business.

Enbridge's people live and work in communities like yours as colleagues, neighbors and friends. Much of the salary earned by Enbridge employees is injected directly into the local and state economies.

We have a workforce of more than 16,000 people, primarily in the United States and Canada, with major American offices in Houston, Duluth, MN, and Superior, WI.

Tax revenue

Enbridge's presence in the community fuels quality of life through ongoing tax revenue. We pay property taxes on our pipelines and related facilities—such as terminals, storage facilities, pump stations, compressor stations, and energy generation facilities—as well as sales-and-use tax, corporate income tax and other taxes, including payroll tax, fuel tax, and excise tax.

This revenue can be used for schools, infrastructure (roads and bridges), health and wellness, recreation, transportation and other services that help strengthen the fabric of the community.

Economic spinoffs*

Enbridge's ongoing operations, and planned projects, continue to stimulate local and regional economies. Through procurement spending, we're helping to create indirect employment, support local businesses, and establish economic spinoffs.

Our capital expenditures include such items as pipe steel, equipment purchases and replacement, system integrity-related investments, and capital leases. Meanwhile, our operating and administrative expenditures include such items as maintenance costs, equipment leases, power consumption, and field personnel salaries and wages.
