

Safely transporting the energy that fuels our lives

Line 5 Wisconsin Segment Relocation Project Update

Line 5 WI Segment Relocation Project Update

Meeting Agenda

- ✓ Project Overview – Michelle Johnson
- ✓ Permitting – Cathryn Hanson/Jason Risdall
- ✓ Construction – Adam Erickson
- ✓ Landowners – Rich Kern
- ✓ Tribal – April Holdren
- ✓ Community Engagement – Michelle Johnson
- ✓ Q&A - All

Thank you to everyone working to keep communities healthy and safe.

Line 5 WI Segment Relocation Project Update

Project Overview

- ✓ Line 5 is a vital link to propane & other energy supplies for region
- ✓ Safely operating since 1953
- ✓ Permits filed in early 2020
- ✓ Open houses held in Feb. 2020
- ✓ Permitting 2020-2021
- ✓ Construction upon receipt of permits
- ✓ Approx. 700 union jobs
- ✓ In service – Late 2021 (projected)

Line 5 WI Segment Replacement Project Update

Permitting - Environmental

- ✓ Major permits filed in Feb. 2020 with WDNR and US Army Corps of Engineers
- ✓ Public Comment Period in 2020
 - Includes public meetings
 - Likely online/virtual meetings with mail-in
- ✓ Field surveys underway
 - Cultural Resources
 - Wetland and Biological Resources
 - Geotechnical drilling

Line 5 WI Segment Replacement Project Update

Public Service Commission (PSCW) – Public Interest Determination Filing

- ✓ Enbridge filed its Public Interest Determination Application for the Line 5 Wisconsin Segment Relocation Project with the PSCW on February 7, 2020
- ✓ PSCW staff reviewing application and issued a Notice of Investigation on May 7, 2020
- ✓ Next expected steps in PSCW review process include issuance of proceedings schedule, which would include a public hearing in the area of the project

Line 5 WI Segment Relocation Project Update

Construction Preparation

Line 5 WI Segment Relocation Project Update

Construction

Line 5 WI Segment Relocation Project

Landowners

Line 5 WI Segment Relocation Project

Tribal

- ✓ Tribal monitors on the conventional Archaeological Surveys & geotechnical drilling sites
- ✓ Tribal Cultural Resources Surveys
- ✓ Project & survey effort introduced to Tribal Historic Preservation Officers (THPOS)
- ✓ Small group meetings & one-on-one conversations with Tribal citizens

Line 5 WI Segment Relocation Project

Community Engagement

The BRICK
Ministries

Q&A
