Enbridge Annual Contractor Safety & Environment Orientation Training

(LP/GTM/Power/GDS/Central Functions)

Please note: This training fulfills general safety and environment orientation requirements only. A site-specific orientation is also required any time someone is new to a site, when conditions change, or new hazards arise at a worksite. Also, Enbridge personnel or contingent workers are not required to complete this annual orientation.

Option B) Complete the training online via ISNetworld

Download files for on-site delivery or to provide contractors with the applicable video content on a USB memory stick. Contractors must track and maintain their own completion records.
